PART 1 - INTRODUCTORY PROVISIONS

Short title

1.1 This regulation may be cited as the Administration of Justice Regulation.

Application

1.2 This regulation prescribes

- (a) the form for a compliance notice and forms related to compliance notices, including:
  - (i) the form for an application for review,
  - (ii) the form for additional information,
  - (iii) the form for any schedules, and
  - (iv) the form for any affidavits,
- (b) the form for a violation ticket and forms related to violation tickets, including:
  - (i) the form for a certificate of service,
  - (ii) the form for a notice of dispute, and
  - (iii) the form for a statement and written reasons,
- (c) the manner in which administration of justice forms must be completed, and
- (d) the fee and process for applying for review of a compliance notice.

Definitions

1.3 In this regulation,

“Act” means the Administration of Justice Act, UTS 75/2025;

“administration of justice form” means a form established under this regulation and includes any attachments to the administration of justice form; and

“application for review” means an application for review of a compliance notice in accordance with Part 12 of the Act.

VIOLATION TICKET PAYMENT AND DISPUTE INSTRUCTIONS

HOW TO PAY THE VIOLATION TICKET

REDUCE TICKETED AMOUNT(S) BY PAYING EARLY

You may pay the discounted penalty amount set out on the front of this violation ticket if you pay in full within 14 days after the date of service of the violation ticket.

PAY IN PERSON

Present your violation ticket and payment at the Uchucklesaht Tribe Government administration office during regular business hours:

5251 Argyle St, Port Alberni, BC V9Y 1V1

PAY BY MAIL

Mail your payment by certified cheque or money order in Canadian funds payable to the Uchucklesaht Tribe at the following address: 5251 Argyle St, Port Alberni, BC V9Y 1V1. Do not send cash. A receipt will not be mailed.

Your payment must be accompanied by a copy of the violation ticket or a note that contains the following as shown on the violation ticket:

- The violation ticket number
- Your name, address, date of birth and driver's licence number
- The violation date and the name of the Act or regulation and section contravened for each alleged offence to which the payment relates

If you do not provide these details or a copy of your violation ticket, it may not be possible to process your payment. If this occurs, the ticketed amount for each alleged offence to which the payment relates will be unpaid.

WHAT HAPPENS IF YOU PAY A TICKETED AMOUNT IN FULL?

If you pay the ticketed amount in full, you are deemed to have pleaded guilty to the alleged offence and the offence will be added as a conviction to the records kept by Uchucklesaht Tribe Government.

WHAT HAPPENS IF YOU PAY A PORTION OF A TICKETED AMOUNT OR DO NOT PAY AT ALL?

If, within 30 days of the date of service of the violation ticket, you pay a portion of the ticketed amount for an alleged offence, or do not pay the ticketed amount for the alleged offence and do not dispute the alleged offence, you are deemed to have pleaded guilty to the offence. This will have the following consequences: you will be subject to collection activity; the offence will be added as a conviction to the records kept by Uchucklesaht Tribe Government; in the case of certain offences, you may be refused a licence or a permit under the Act that you have contravened or whose regulations you have contravened or under another enactment.

HOW TO DISPUTE THE VIOLATION TICKET

You can dispute an alleged offence set out in the violation ticket or a fine or both by providing a notice of dispute in accordance with the instructions below. Your notice of dispute must be received within 30 days of the date of service of the violation ticket. If you dispute an alleged offence, you or your agent will have to appear at a Provincial Court hearing. If you do not want to dispute an alleged offence but want to request a reduction in a fine or additional time to pay, you can complete and submit a Violation Ticket Statement and Written Reasons form with your notice of dispute or you or your agent can appear at a Provincial Court hearing to make the request.

DISPUTE BY E-MAIL

You may e-mail your notice of dispute to justice@uchucklesaht.ca

DISPUTE IN PERSON

You may deliver your notice of dispute in person to the Uchucklesaht administration office at the address set out on the back of this violation ticket. You will need to bring the violation ticket and you may be required to fill out a Notice of Dispute form as provided at that location.

DISPUTE BY MAIL

You may mail a letter to the Uchucklesaht administration office at the address set out on the back of this violation ticket saying that you want to dispute the violation ticket. The letter must identify any alleged offence or fine for any alleged offence that you are disputing and set out the address to which the Provincial Court will send your notice of hearing. You must include a copy of the violation ticket with your letter, or your letter must contain the following as shown on the violation ticket:

- The violation ticket number
- Your name, address, date of birth and driver's licence number
- The violation date and the name of the Act or regulation and section contravened for each alleged offence that you are disputing

If you do not provide these details in the letter or a copy of the violation ticket, it may not be possible to process your dispute. If this occurs, you will be deemed to have pleaded guilty to the offence(s).

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER YOUR NOTICE OF DISPUTE HAS BEEN RECEIVED?

If you dispute an alleged offence or submit a request for a reduction in a fine for an alleged offence or additional time to pay without including a completed Violation Ticket Statement and Written Reasons form, a Notice of Hearing will be sent to you in the mail or electronically. The notice will tell you the date, time and location for your Provincial Court hearing.

If you or your agent do not appear at the Provincial Court hearing at the indicated date and time, the alleged offence is deemed not to be disputed and you are deemed to have pleaded guilty to the offence. This will have the following consequences: the ticketed amount is immediately payable; the offence will be added as a conviction to the records kept by Uchucklesaht Tribe Government; in the case of certain offences, you may be refused a licence or a permit under the Act that you have contravened or whose regulations you have contravened or under another enactment.

If you submit a request for a reduction in a fine or additional time to pay and a completed Violation Ticket Statement and Written Reasons form, an order of a justice setting out the Court's decision will be sent to you in the mail or electronically.
