Western Forest Products Inc.
DEFINING A HIGHER STANDARD™

Western Forest Products Inc. (Western) has a proud history of working closely with coastal Indigenous communities to ensure that our forest resource management practices protect environmental and cultural values while providing social and economic benefit to BCs coastal communities.

While government-to-government engagement is ultimately required, we recognize Indigenous rights, title and interests in the land and believe that by working with Indigenous communities, Western can play an important role in advancing reconciliation.

We are honored to share this path towards reconciliation and are committed to the following principles:

1. Engage early and often with Indigenous communities that may be affected by our activities and listen, learn and incorporate their input into our plans.
2. Invest in getting to know the Indigenous communities where we operate and to learn from one another.
3. Identify and grow mutually beneficial, business-to-business relationships with Indigenous vendors.
4. Seek to procure goods and services from businesses committed to advancing reconciliation with Indigenous communities.
5. Work with our contractors to increase their awareness of opportunities to employ Indigenous people in their work.
6. Make Western a forestry employer of choice for Indigenous people by fostering an inclusive and welcoming environment in our workplace.
7. Collaborate with Indigenous communities and educational institutions to enhance worker readiness in the forest sector.
